ETERNAL IMPACT

There are three things in this world that has eternal value:

- The resident Holy Spirit in the believer
- The Word of God in the soul
- The soul of the believer

In the world, only the Trinity and the Word of God are eternal, they have no beginning and have no end. The souls of the believers received the eternal life of God, which is more accurate to call "everlasting life" because it has a beginning (the moment a person believed and received the free gift of salvation) but has no ending.

In this planet, people (including believers) are deeply absorbed in the things of the world. They are trapped in the matters of the world and things of the world. Carnal believers at the point of their pseudo strength create different spiritual power that comes not from God but from Satan. God is glorified by His own power system, by His own perfection and never by human self-righteousness.

Self-righteousness is human alternative for the perfection of God and His work for the entire human race. Self-righteousness is replacing the power of God with human power. It is substituting the finished work of Christ on the cross for the salvation of man with human incapacity to gain the approval of God with human works.

Human good works cannot please God and have no access to God because it is not based on Bible doctrines. "And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him" (Hebrews 11:6).

God can accept only His own perfection and righteousness. There is no other way to be acceptable before God than through His perfect righteousness and we do not have that kind of righteousness.

The grace of God means that Christ earned our merits before God. He earned our acceptance to God has already provided us that righteousness in Christ Jesus the moment we believe and accept the free gift of salvation. We live in God's righteousness by constantly storing Bible doctrines in the souls. We can only live in God's way by progressively and systematically studying Bible doctrines until we depart from this world.

Christians cannot do the will of God unless they have knowledge of the will of God planted in their souls. They cannot obey the will of God unless they know the Word of God. They cannot love God unless they know the Word of God. They cannot serve God unless they know the Word of God. There is only one issue here, before we can love, serve, and worship God; we must know Him through His Word.

For things to be acceptable before God requires several elements:

- Done under the filling of the Holy Spirit
- Done according to Bible doctrines
- Done in God's power
- Done in God's way
- Done in God's time
- Done in God's method

The issue is not doing great things for God but doing the right thing at the right time in the right way. God is not asking believers to aspire great things for Him but to do His small things accordingly. Most of the Old Testament believers listed in Hebrews chapter eleven simply lived for God on day-by-day basis.

God is not asking the believers to do the impossible to have spiritual and eternal impact. He has provided unlimited possibility for us to glorify Him in time and in eternity by simply doing His will, one day at a time.

Do not follow the mystical preachers who goad their followers to do great things in this world as expressions of their "spiritual victory" in conquering the world for God.

The duration of human life is divided into three segments:

When a person is young, he is full of energy and has all the time in the world but has no money. Most Christians are wasting their lives for nothing during their younger life. They are wasting their most important possessions (time and energy) for thinking nothing except the things of the world.. The best thing a person can do for himself is to study the Word of God while he has all energy and the time to do so

When a person is adult, he earns all the money he desires in the world but has no time for the most important thing, which is the Word of God. For most people of the world, life begins at forty, and so, they devote the rest of their lives for earning money.

When a person reached his seniority his energy diminishes to do the things he wanted to do, though he has money and all the time.

Human superiority and inferiority does not contribute to spiritual growth and advance toward spiritual maturity. Church Age believers are graciously provided with all the blessings vitally related to spiritual growth and maturity.

There is nothing we need to add or improvise or contribute to divine provisions. The believers are capable and able to do and fulfill the plan, purpose, and will of God in any circumstances, in any situation or condition. Only carnality hinders the momentum and advance of the Church Age believer. Negative volition believer has the entire alibi not to do the will and purpose of God.
