The pastor-teacher has five responsibilities which are the means by which he tends and shepherds the flock of God:

- To teach the whole counsel of God (1 Tim 4:13) whereby they are protected from heretical deception and satanic lies.
- To equip and train the Church (Eph. 4:11-12)
- To pray (Acts 6:1-4)

The Nazi Propaganda minister, Paul Joseph Goebbels told Hitler the very key for successful lying: "Tell a lie often enough, loud enough, and long enough, and people will believe you." It is easier to believe a lie that one has heard a thousand times than to believe a fact that no one has heard before. Some pastors have remarkable success in the world using the Nazi formula.

Volitional Responsibility and Lying:

- Every person is accountable for his own thought, decision and action.
- Every person with old sinful nature is a liar (Rom. 3:4) with the exemption of the perfect humanity of the Lord Jesus Christ.
- The believers possess the intrinsic capacity to tell the truth from the imputed righteousness of the Lord Jesus Christ.
- The life of every believer (Eccl. 9:11) including the smallest details (Job 12:10) are under the guidance and direction of the Lord (Prov. 16:9) when filled with the Holy Spirit.

The worshipers of God will resemble like the God they are worship (Micah 4:5) as believers, we must become like our Father in which we are commanded to be like Him (1 Peter 1:15-16).

The Greatest possibility to be like the humanity of Christ:

- It is impossible for God to lie (Heb. 6:18) and it is also possible for believers to speak the truth.
- There is no iniquity in God (Deut. 32:4) and we have the grace provision for rebound (1 Jn. 1:9).
- God is true (2 Cor. 1:18) and it's only through the filling of the Holy Spirit and metabolized doctrine in the soul that we can be true to ourselves, to God and others.
- God's way are just and true (Rev. 15:3) and it's the Holy Spirit through the word of God that can renew our mind according to the image of the Lord Jesus Christ.
- God's judgments are true and righteous (Rev. 16:7) and only through the filling of the Holy Spirit and Bible doctrine in the souls that our judgment will be just and righteous.
- The Words of the Lord are true (2 Sam. 7:28) and only when a person has the Word of God in the soul that he can speak the Word of truth.
- When there is a question between what God says and what man thought about it, always consider that God is the finality of truth and man is always the liar (Rom. 3:4).

The lowest and the sickest kind of lying is when you compare yourself with other liars and thereby concluding that you are more honest and better person. Liars will be in heaven but the self-proclaimed honest and self-righteous people will be in hell for rejecting the grace of God.
