

Angel s....

1. Angels are spiritual beings created by God to glorify Him
2. Angels were created with Eternal Life, which they can never lose
3. Angels are of types of angels, Elect and Fallen: Elect Angels are followers of God, and Fallen Angels (also called demons) are followers of Satan.
4. Satan was the highest ranking angel before he rebelled against God through arrogant-ambition and took a third of all the angels with him.

ANGELS are...

5. Satan and the Fallen Angels were sentenced to the Lake of Fire.
6. Satan appealed the decision, and mankind was created to resolve the Angelic Conflict.
7. After Adam and the woman sinned, additional human beings were created to be witnesses in the appeal trial.
8. Angels are active participants in the Appeal Trial. They come to earth, observe mankind and try to influence mankind like spectators rooting for a team.

ANGELS are...

9. They can even walk all over the playing field, but they cannot participate in game in man's place as happened prior to the Flood.
10. Angels watch people because people are the witnesses in the trial.
11. Fallen Angels influence mankind to thwart the Plan of God. They can talk to people, but they lie.
12. Elect Angels are ministering spirits to protect people, administer the Plan of God, control the environment, and help believers understand Bible Doctrine.

ANGELS are.....

13. Neither elect Angels will talk to people, nor will they make themselves visible except under rare circumstances; but their presence can be discerned through application of Bible Doctrine.
14. There is a hierarchy of angelic rank that includes: Throne Angels, Angelic Powers, Commanders, and Managers.
15. Angelic rank is marked by the number of wings: Seraphim have 6 wings and the highest rank. Next are Angelic Powers and Commanders with 4 wings. Next are 2 wings managers.
16. Elect Angels wear white that is whiter than snow.
17. When angels raise their wings, powerful force fields such as hurricanes and jet streams are created.
18. Prior to resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ, angels escort those who die to heaven or hell and protect the graves of the dead.

ANGELS are....

19. Angels do not have male or female gender, although Fallen Angels cohabited with women before the Flood and produced super creatures. Although they are without gender, angels can appear as male or female.
20. Thus, angels are not women, babies, or animals and should not be depicted as such. Artistic depiction of women and baby angels are portrayals of Satan as the goddess of love.
21. Angels are symbolized by animals.
22. Everyone has at least one angel, a guardian, for protection to ensure that the Plan of God is fulfilled.
23. Angels escort those who die to heaven or hell and protect the graves of the dead.
