

Cherreguine Bible Doctrine Ministries dikaosune.com

Summary of Jealousy

- Jealousy is a mental attitude sin that seeks exclusive devotion to self.
- Jealousy is total occupation with self.
- Jealousy is an emotional state of anxiety.
- Jealousy motivates verbal and overt sins (Gen. 4:4-5, 1 John 3:15).
- Jealousy is very dangerous and self damaging (Proverbs 27:4).
- Jealousy is discontentment with blessing, achievement, success, glory, and promotion of others.
- Jealousy is resentment of attractiveness, approbation, recognition or promotion of others.
- Jealousy is rejection and resentment of authority motivated by arrogance.
- Jealousy is total selfishness.
- Jealousy is incapable of real love.
- Jealousy is possessiveness that suppresses volition of others.
- Jealousy is controlling others.
- Jealousy is fear of losing others, possessions, loved ones or something.
- Jealousy hinders others from loving volitionally.
- Jealousy is very demanding (a jealous person demands others to love him/her).
- Jealousy is incapable of rational thinking.
- Jealousy is always suspicious.
- Jealousy is inordinate competition in love affair, business, and social life or in any areas of life.
- Jealousy is produce by rejection of Bible doctrine (1 Timothy 6:3-4).
- Jealousy is destructive mental attitude (James 3:14-16).
- Jealousy creates disorder or instability in the soul of believers.
- Jealousy produces mental and physical sickness (Proverbs 14:30).
- Jealousy kills the foolish (Job 5:2, Proverbs 27:3-4).
- Jealousy is tyranny which intrudes privacy of others.
- Jealousy destroys legitimate personal love toward spouse or lover (Song of Solomon 8:6-7).
- Jealousy produces false motivation.
- Jealousy rejoices in the miseries of others (Proverbs 24:17-18).
- Men are more vulnerable to become jealous of others related to power, position, title, wealth, and health.
- Women are more vulnerable to become jealous of others related to popularity, intelligence, reputation, and performance.

- Only God can change a jealous person through daily reception, retention and recall of Bible doctrine inside the Divine dynasphere.

Cherreguine Bible Doctrine Ministries
dikaosune.com