

THE RIGHT CONGREGATION

- Can identify it's right pastor/teacher and remain under his authority (1 Peter 5:3)
- Willingly submit to the pastor/teacher authority (1 Thess. 5:12)
- Has consistent positive volition toward Bible Doctrine (Col. 1:4)
- Has spiritual stability as result of consistent intake of Bible doctrine.
- Has objectivity and priority of Bible doctrine.
- Has growing and consistent discipline in daily perception, retention, and recall of Bible doctrine.
- Has a growing spiritual poise and confidence.
- Is thoughtful toward others, though they are unfaithful.
- Recognizes the privacy of others.
- Is blessed of God in time and relaxed about their blessings.
- Has growing virtue love toward God and men.
- Has a passion to do the will and plan of God whatever it will cost them.