

What is a Disciple of Christ?

One who does not only learns but follow..

The spiritual life consist not in depth of your understanding of Who and What God is but primarily in the application of what you are continually learning from the Holy Spirit.

Spiritual growth is determined not by what you know but basically by what you applied into life experience.