

The Fallacy of Spiritual Growth

Fallacy 3: Spiritual maturity is measured by how much an individual receive from God according to his faith.

Truth: Spiritual maturity is measured by the maximum Bible doctrine stored, resident, functional and operational in the soul of the believers under the power of the Holy Spirit.

Argument: Anyone can pray and answer his own prayer, or get the answer from Satan. Your “answered prayer” has nothing to do with your maturity, in fact, the mature believer has cease from requesting God for childish petitions or request., for things God is responsible.
