

The Fallacy of Spiritual Growth

08

Fallacy 8: Spiritual maturity is an aggressive faith that aspires great things for God and demands great things from God.

Truth: Spiritual maturity is characterized by maximum inner happiness and contentment which enables the mature believer to face any adversity of life with poise and confidence.

The spiritually mature believer boasts of the finished works of Christ and has lost the appetite for the world and the things of the world.

Argument: The Lord Jesus Christ rejected the world and its glory, while most “servants” of God are obsessed with it!
