

Compliant Adaptability

- What you have learned in childhood stay with you for a lifetime
- Some are beneficial but most are not
- Old habits are hard to break, old erroneous beliefs are stubborn
- Change is often difficult and never without resistance

Application:

- We are to comply with God's timing
- We are to change as He brings the catalyst for change
- We are to give up our way for God's way
- We are to give up what you always believed when it clashes with doctrinal truth.
