

NO CONDEMNATION

- No condemnation within relationship with God
- No condemnation within relationship with men

3 Directions of No Condemnation

The absence of condemnation in our relationship with God as results of the CROSS

The absence of condemnation towards others implies that we judge ourselves and not others

The absence of condemnation towards us and our sins implies that we have no rights to live in guilt

