

When God's truth is accepted:

You know you have a future or hope

When God's truth is understood:

You know you have a purpose

When God's truth is pursued:

You know you have realistic expectation

When God's truth is realized:

You know you have nothing to ask for...